Dear Ms. Elliott:

My name is Anthony Guerra, III and I am the Constable of Ward K in St. Bernard, Louisiana. My residence was located outside of the levy protection system at 3005 Hopedale Hwy., St. Bernard, LA. On Sunday, August 28, 2005, my family and I evacuated our home in anticipation of Hurricane Katrina. I chose to stay in Chalmette at the St. Bernard Parish Government Complex. On August 29, 2005, we experienced a direct hit by Hurricane Katrina. My home and everything in it was completely destroyed.

Shortly after hurricane Katrina hit St. Bernard, severe flooding was experienced throughout St. Bernard Parish, including Chalmette. While I had packed personal belonging and financial records in my vehicle, they as well as the vehicle were destroyed as result of the flooding.

Please be advised that attempts by your office to contact me via U.S. mail were extremely delayed. Mail service has been sporadic, at best, and has taken two months and longer to reach me. Everyday services have been virtually non-existent.

I have completed the attached to the best of my ability, as I have no records to refer to. If you have any concerns or questions, please feel free to contact me; my cell phone number is (504) 583-1555. Thank you for you assistance with this matter.

Please keep in mind that correspondence from you will take longer than usual to reach me and therefore delay my response.

Sincerely,

Anthony Guerra, III
Constable, Ward K
St. Bernard Parish, Louisiana
